Date: 10-05-2021

Schedule: 11:30 pm

Brief Report

Towards the internship process affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, School of Technology, Management and Engineering, SVKM'S NMIMS Indore organized Expert Lecture on "How to get a Startup Internship" on 10-05-2021. Here the students get to know the tips and tricks how to crack internships with startups with the help of Mentors who were from Stanford University (Mr. Deepak Shapeti, Chief Operating Officer - Scool), IIM Indore (Mr. Masoom Suchdeo, Partner-scool.life), University of Cambridge (Mr. Anas Khan, Co-founder and pedagogy head at school) and The Business Tycoon (Mr. Athar Ali Nagpurwala) who has been the Co-founder of the famous beverage brand "Chai Kaapi".

The major objective of the session was to let students know how the Startups are built and the tips to crack Internship with them. The session started with an opening by Mr. Mudit Thakkar (Head PR & B2B Sales).

Then Mr. Deepak Shapeti came up with Rule 1 to get an Internship in a startup was "Proper Understanding of Startup and What is the Mindset of Startup." He also told students should have a command on the vocabulary used in that Startup. Then Mr. Anas Khan introduced the Rule 2 "You should have an active Social Media presence on channels like LinkedIn and various other platforms where you can reach out to people for jobs or Internships." Rule 3 was given by Mr. Athar Ali "Hands on Knowledge" that is DIY (Do it Yourself) attitude, along with that he explained about school and how he became a successful Entrepreneur. Then Mr. Masoom shared his experience with Rebel Foods.

It was an extremely interactive session and most of the attendees came out with their interest in Internships at Startups. Dr. Aaquil Bunglowala concluded the session by proposing vote of thanks extending his gratitude to Universities authorities, Dr. Prachi Gharpure Director, NMIMS Indore Campus all the faculty & staff members for making this event possible and successful.
